

Agency Quarterly Report Cover Sheet

Agency: The Salvation Army of Vermilion County

Program: Emergency Lodging

Quarterly Report Date Range: June 2022 – August 2022

Report Due Date: October 14, 2022

Agency Quarterly Meeting: October 18 – Location TBA

Agency Outputs: (As detailed on 2021-2022 Application)

- Reduce the percentage of people who are not able to be assisted due to lack of funding from current year levels.
- Make referrals to permanent housing opportunities to at least fifty percent of people who request/receive lodging assistance.
- Provide employment information to all people requesting lodging assistance and who are currently unemployed, whether short or long term.

How many lives have been impacted over the last quarter?

Twenty-seven (27) – unduplicated count

Please break down demographics of lives impacted. If not available, how are you going to work towards gathering this information?

70 percent White

30 percent Black

Are you on track to hit your output goals as listed above? If not, what is preventing you from reaching those output goals?

Yes – additional funding from other sources, including Salvation Army Emergency Welfare Reserve funds (available first time this year), the MACP (Margaret A. Cargill Philanthropies) grant, and an Ameren grant of $5,000. Also, the Army refers people to the Vermilion Advantage Job Board, and posts job information and flyers in the food pantry room. Case manager will help someone search for a job if they are looking for a specific position. Salvation Army and Goodwill Industries (Danville) presented employment skills workshops over the summer months (June, July, August), focusing on interview skills training, resume writing and job search.

Please provide one (or more) inspiring story over the last quarter. This could be about your organization or a special impact story. Please include any pictures/graphics you feel necessary with your report.

Grant, his wife and two children, were homeless. Grant was out of work and waiting on a new apartment. His wife had health issues. At the time Grant visited the Army office he was scheduled to start a new job the following week. Using United Way monies, the Army provided one week's lodging to help bring stability.

Becky headed up a household of five (including three children) which was exiting a domestic violence situation. Becky was referred to Danville Salvation Army by the women's shelter because it was at full capacity. Thanks to United Way, the Army provided one week's lodging to bridge the gap between homelessness and more permanent housing.
